Dear Mr. Director,

This letter is to follow up a fax I sent to your attention in December 2009. In that fax I included the decision by the Department of Veteran's Affairs as to the Central Intelligence Agencies involvement with Special Operations that confirmed that I was involved with the Department of Defence, United States Air Force covert operations through the use of cryptology communication systems.

The office of U.S. Congressman Sam Graves and your office were the only two agencies that was informed of my request to release all evidence of the "Chapman" Legacy and my involvement in covert operations.

I understand the importance of secrecy. Unfortunately, in my case I was diagnosed
